Beginner Writing Practice

Sentence formation · Basic paragraphs · Friendly letters

Name: _____ Date: _____

How to use these pages

Try each activity first. Then compare your work with the sample answers at the end. More than one answer can be correct when the meaning is clear.

01 · Sentence Formation

Objectives · Put words in a clear order. Find who or what a sentence is about and what they do. Begin with a capital letter and finish with a full stop.

Guided example · Arrange: reads / Meena / a story
Think: Who? Meena. What does she do? reads. What does she read? a story.
Sentence: Meena reads a story.

A. Put the words in order and add a full stop.

1. the bus / catches / Ravi

_____

2. in the garden / flowers / grow

_____

B. Choose the complete sentence.

■ My sister is kind. ■ Runs to the shop. ■ The blue bag

C. Write one sentence about something you enjoy.

_____

_____

02 · Basic Paragraphs

Objectives · Write one clear topic sentence, add related details, and finish with a closing sentence.

Guided example · My Morning

I get up early each morning. I wash and get ready for the day. Then I eat breakfast with my family. I feel prepared when I leave home.

Notice: The first sentence names the topic. The middle sentences add details. The last sentence brings the paragraph to a close.

A. Plan a paragraph about a favourite place.

My topic sentence: _____

Detail 1: _____

Detail 2: _____

My closing sentence: _____

B. Write your paragraph. Connect each sentence to the same topic.

_____

_____

_____

_____

C. Check your writing.

■ I stayed on one topic. ■ My details match the topic. ■ I used capitals and full stops.

03 · Friendly Letter Writing

Objectives · Use a greeting, write a short message for your reader, and end with a sign-off and your name.

Guided example

Dear Anu,

Thank you for inviting me to your birthday. I would love to come. I will bring the book we talked about.

See you soon,
Maya

Notice: The greeting names the reader. The message gives the reason for writing. The sign-off ends the letter politely.

A. Write a friendly note to a classmate about an activity you enjoyed together.

Dear _____,

_____

_____

_____

_____,
_____

B. Before you finish, check:

■ I named my reader. ■ My message is easy to understand. ■ I added a sign-off and my name.

Sample Answers & Self-Check

01 · Sentence Formation

A1. Ravi catches the bus. A2. Flowers grow in the garden.
B. My sister is kind.
C. Answers will vary. Example: I enjoy drawing after school.

02 · Basic Paragraphs

Answers will vary. A sample: The beach is my favourite place. I like walking beside the water. I can watch the waves and collect shells. The beach helps me feel calm. Each sentence stays on the topic and adds a related detail.

03 · Friendly Letter Writing

Answers will vary. Check that your note has a greeting, a clear message for the reader, a sign-off, and your name. The sample letter to Anu shows one possible format.

Keep practising one clear sentence at a time.